George S. Backer, building contractor, with over $12,000,000 worth or building contracts now in progress, was arraigned before Judge Mulqueen in Chambers of General Sessions to-day. He is the first of thesmen named in the disclosures before the Lockwood Legislative Committee to be indicted. He is charged with perjury in his testimony at the Committee hearing of Oct. 21. Bail of $35,000 was furnished for him by a bonding company.

The indictment charges Backer with telling the Committee under eath, first that he went to a race track May 11 with $15,000 given to him that day by Ephraim B. Levy, owner of the Textile building, under construction by Backer, as a bribe to be paid to avoid labor difficulties and there lost the money in wagers on horse racing; then that he turned over the money to two men unknown to him by name.
